INTRODUCTION

In the beginning I possessed very little information about my family, the only Huntleys I knew being my Father, known familiarly to everyone as "Beecher" although his full and legal name was Frederick Beecher Huntley, his sister, Mary E. Huntley, my "Aunt Mame" Judd, with whom I lived until my ninth year in Mystic, Connecticut and my sister, Doris.

About 1928 Edward S. Huntley, Sr., a banker and his family moved from New London, Connecticut to live down the street but Father didn't know whether he was a distant relative or not. Once in a while we would get their mail and I suppose vice versa.

Father, of course, knew his parent's names and could tell many an anecdote about his Mother's relatives in Old Lyme, Connecticut: the Andersons, Champions, DeWolfes and the Pecks but knew only that his Grandfather Huntley was called "Barney" and had lived in the Hamburg section of Lyme, Connecticut and was somehow related to the Spencers.

While serving in WWII I had the good fortune to be stationed in 1942 and in 1944 on the beautiful North Island of New Zealand and had gone through by convoy the fine little City of Huntly which I learned had been named for Huntly in Scotland.

Then in 1947 I ran across an article in "The New London (Connecticut) Day" reporting a Reunion of the Huntley National Association, a family group, at the Roger's Lake Clubhouse in Old Lyme. Upon questioning Father about some of those attending he immediately recognized several as being his first cousins, daughters of his Uncle Henry Huntley which was news to me. I soon contacted one of those cousins, Mrs. Robert (Ellen) Sawyer of Hamburg and became a member of Huntley National Assn. which had come into being prompted by the printing of a pamphlet "We, Who are Huntleys" in 1945 by Royce E. Huntley, then of Syracuse, New York.

Royce E. Huntley, then a printer with the Syracuse Herald-Journal, had printed these little booklets and had sent them around the country at his own expense.

This fine gesture had immediate results in a renewal of interest in the origin of John Huntley, the Immigrant and in family lines which eventually led to the holding of the first Reunion over the 4th of July, 1947 in Old Lyme, Connecticut.

From 1950 to 1972 I served as Historian of Huntley National and while attending some 30 Reunions of the family held from Kentville, Nova Scotia to Fresno, California have met hundreds of Huntleys from nearly all of the States and some of the Provinces of Canada.

Over the last twenty-seven years I have collected a great deal of information on Huntleys both North and South by correspondence, by research in Town Halls, County Courthouses in many States and in the National Archives, Washington, D.C. Not wishing to see some of my discoveries about the family discarded by my executors I have therefore undertaken to put these findings into print as it will provide new information on various lines of the family and also correct mistakes which in some instances have occurred and are already in print.

I am not a professional genealogist so this publication at best will be an imperfect history of the Huntleys and I would advise it to be used as a guide rather than an authoritative genealogy.

Book I will take the family of John Huntley down to the seventh generation in the male line and in some cases to the children of the eighth generation in the female lines. My reason for only carrying the male lines down to the seventh generation is that there are many Huntleys apparently of the sixth and perhaps the seventh generation whose ancestry at this time is unknown. They may not be included in this book. I hope sincerely that Huntley descendants who do not find their ancestors in this work will bring forth evidence to prove their descent so that the presently unplaced Huntleys can be identified in a future Book II.

Compiling a genealogy of a family such as that of John Huntley of Lyme, Connecticut has not been an easy one.

After some hundred years in Lyme both single families and groups of families with their in-laws set out to establish new homes for themselves in relatively remote and unsettled country. With perhaps the exception of deeds or title to land, records were poorly kept in pioneer settlements as survival was the immediate objective. This fact has increased the difficulty in identifying various Huntley families. Much credit for doing the spadework on the early generations of the family should go to the following persons, one of whom, Mrs. Ivy (Huntley) Horn of Herndon, Virginia, collected and compiled Huntley records from 1907 to 1967 and generously shared them with others.

Mrs. Ivy H. Horn of Herndon, Virginia
Mrs. Alice P. Huntley of Hanover, Massachusetts
Mr. Floyd J. Huntley of Worcester, Massachusetts
Miss Gertrude M. Huntley of Fort Edward, New York
Mr. Randall R. Huntley of Auburn, California
Mr. Roy D. Huntley of Marlow, New Hampshire
Mr. Royce E. Huntley of Phoenix, New York

Mrs. Dorris M. Kenerson of South Gardiner, Maine
Miss Ruth M. Potter of Lake Mills, Wisconsin
I wish to thank all those other Huntley descendants or connections who have contributed information over the years on the various lines of the family. I wish especially to thank Mrs. Josephine M. Peck of Quoketaug Hill, Old Mystic, Connecticut for her advice and encouragement in preparing this book for publication. The documents used in this volume are part of the public record wherever found. Their use is not intended to injure any person now living but to prove without doubt correct family relationship. Some documents were selected to show the common practice of the period when used or for the historical interest of their contents.

THE ENGLISH HUNTLEYS

Huntley or Huntly is a place name, meaning quite simply a field or meadow in which to hunt. When surnames or family names came into fashion or general usage, individuals having only given names simply added on such various means of identification as their occupation, or personal characteristic such as long, short or took for a surname the name of the place which they owned or lived near. The English family of Huntley is believed to trace its descent from one, Baderon or Balderon, who with his brother, Wythenoc, went to England from Brittany in the forces of William the Conqueror in AD 1066.

Baderon had a son, William Fitz Baderon, who was Baron of Monmouth in AD 1119 and William had a son, Baderon de Monmouth, who married Roesia de Clare.

One of the sons of Baderon de Monmouth and Roesia de Clare, Sir Walter de Huntley was granted the lands of Huntley in the Barony of Monmouthshire and took his name from that place.

Sir Walter de Huntley married Petronilla de Musgros and is apparently the ancestor of the Huntleys of Treowen in Wales and the Huntleys of Gloucestershire and elsewhere in England.

Sir Walter de Huntley is probably also the ancestor of those Huntleys who have crossed the Atlantic to the Americas.

Some descendants of John Huntley of Lyme, Connecticut who have been members of the Church of Latter-Day Saints or Mormon Church, have attempted to trace their lineage to John Huntley, Jr. who was born at Standish, Gloucestershire, England ca. 1553, a son of John and Margaret (Andrews) Huntley. This John Huntley, Jr. married ca. 1575, Alice Langley who was born ca. 1542 at Knowlton, Kent, England a daughter of Edward and Joan (Thame) Langley. Alice Huntley of Churchdown died ca. 1609 and her Will was filed in that year in Gloucestershire.

There were no less than seven John Huntleys whose Wills were filed in Gloucestershire between the years 1551 and 1638.

The name was also spelled without the e in Gloucestershire by Katherine Huntly of Frocester whose Will was filed in 1595, by Richard Huntly of Newent in 1545, Thomas Huntly of Churchdown in 1609 and William Huntly, Gentleman, of Gloucester in 1612.

Some years ago I received a most interesting letter from John Francis Burra Huntley, Esq. of Boxwell Court, Tetbury, Gloucestershire which, I am sure, he will not mind my sharing with you.

"November 3rd, 1973
Dear Mr. Huntley,

Thank you for a most interesting letter, I enclose a Book Plate showing my Coat of Arms, on the off chance that "old John" of 1647-76 left any book or monument bearing anything like it. The name has certainly been spelled with or without the "E" over the centuries, but Sir Peter de Huntley who was a companion of Hamelyn in the Pacification of Over Gwent (today N. Monmouthshire & S. Hertfordshire) spelt it with the "E". I have never checked but imagine he lived in about 1200 AD. Four or more generations lived at Treowen, 3 miles from Raglan Castle and Huntleys also lived at Hadrock Court (now a farm) near Simond Yat on the River Wye.

The only certain connection I have with this lot at Treowen is the Arms over the front door of that House, which are identical with those I enclose.

One has to remember that the Black Death occurred in 4 waves between 1348 and 1404 and that in Glos. & Monmouthshire at least half the Clerics died; their places being filled by less well-educated Laymen who often could not write. So records were lost or were not kept.

Then in the Civil Wars Gloucester City was besieged for 2 years & Raglan Castle was made unusable & its library-a famous one-burnt.

The first ancestor I know of for certain was John Huntley of the Rye, Gloucester; there is a row of derelict cottages called the Rea at the edge of the Severn behind Gloucester Sewage works which may or not be anything to do with the Rye. All that area was much destroyed during the Siege of Gloucester. Anyway, his son, also John, must have been a man of substance in 1520-1550, certainly well in with the Abbott of Gloucester, for he died at Standish Court, having established his eldest son at Frocester Court & his younger son here (in 1532). All three Courts were Abbey properties & the story is that the Abbott hoped that the Catholic Church might get its properties back when or if Queen Mary came to the throne & put in tenants he could trust. Henry VIII dissolved the Monasteries in 2 parts—first, the foreign owned ones & later those of British ownership in 1536?

The Frocester branch (of Huntleys) lived there until 1632 when the male line died out & the Estate was sold to Lord Bucie of Tortworth.

The younger branch (mine) bought the Freehold of Boxwell Court in 1612 (from memory); a moiety of the Estate belonged to Sir Walter Raleigh who was a huge landowner in his prime & my guess is that when he was beheaded by James I for treason, his estates reverted to the Crown & were smartly sold again. We bought from 2 Londoners called Blake & Van Law who sold to the sitting tenant, no doubt at a profit.

In 1642 when (the) Civil War began Boxwell was owned by John Huntley, aged about 20-25. He was a Catholic but took the side of Parliament & with two neighbors, Stephens of Chavange (now Tetbury) and George of Rodmanton, he seized Cirencester & garrisoned it with local militia on behalf of Parliament. Cirencester was attacked & taken by Prince Rupert in 1642 (I think about Feb., March or April) and Master Stephens, Master George & Captain Huntley were taken to Oxford as prisoners.

There is a letter extant from King Charles to the Burgesses of Bristol in May, 1643, saying in effect "if you carry out your threat to hang your Mayor & two Burgesses who were prepared to hand over the City to me, this will be a monstrous escalation of the War & I will have to consider what I do to Master Stephens, Master George & Captain Huntley, taken prisoner at Cirencester" so Huntley was alive some 2 months after Cirencester fell, though I believe he may have been wounded in that action.

The next thing I know for certain is that Boxwell in 1648 was owned by Mathew Huntley, Uncle of the John who was taken prisoner, and who was a Commander in a troop of Rupert's Horse—a regular soldier, I think & I have never discovered what happened to John. One story is that he died of his wounds.

Stephens of Chavange, incidentally, was an ex Lord Chief Justice-an old man—and father-in-law of Ireton, one of Cromwell's Generals. He must have been released for he signed the King's death warrant later—very reluctantly & under great pressure from Ireton when he (Stephens) was very old & some 6 months before his death, in fact. It is recorded, by the way, that the Burgesses of Bristol did hang their Mayor & his two friends, but that, to his credit, the King did not carry out his threat.

To end my long letter, in 1859, when the owner died, there was a stupid lawsuit over the inheritance & the estate was "in chancery" till 1900. During that time everything except heirlooms was sold to pay debts. Heirlooms seem to have been almost entirely large pictures of Huntleys & their wives by very indifferant painters; all books were sold.

I see that I have not answered about Sir John Lingfield. That bit of history is new to me; I do know that the village of Lingfield is next door to Oxted & that Tandridge is also there. It could well be a relative, perhaps another son of John Huntley of Standish. As a priest he would have remained unmarried & might have been omitted from the very partial family tree that I have. Daughters were frequently omitted.

In this country, now, every County Council has its own Records Office. Gloucester was started about 1920 & in 1939 with danger of loss from bombing etc. everyone owning old documents were encouraged to give or loan them to County Councils for microfilming. For my family, Gloucestershire Records Office at the Shire Hall, Gloucester & the Records Office, Newport, Monmouthshire are most likely draws for those interested & for Church records Boxwell came under Worcester Cathedral until Gloucester was made into a Bishopric in 1538.

But the dates do suggest a possibility that your "old John" (Huntley) at Boston in 1647 might be the same John Huntley who was taken prisoner at Cirencester in 1643 & whose Uncle was one of Prince Rupert's officers & in a position to help somewhat, if he wished. And he obviously benefitted!

There is a village called Huntley on the road from Gloucester to Ross on Wye; whether we were called after it or it after us I have never discovered. There is also the village of Town of Huntly in Aberdeenshire which I think has no connection at all with us.

Whenever you come to this country, do let me know & come here.

Yours sincerely,
John Huntley

P.S. I am 66 so don't put it off too long".
Unfortunately I have been unable to visit Mr. John F. B. Huntley, Esq. but in 1977 a descendant of our John Huntley, Dr. Perry H. Biddle, Jr. of Old Hickory, Tennessee did visit Boxwell Court, finding it a most interesting place and John F. B. Huntley, Esq., an entertaining host.

THE ENGLISH HUNTLEYS

Personal arms of John Francis Burra Huntley of Boxwell Court, Tetbury, Gloucestershire, England.

Argent, on a chevron between three stags' heads erased sable, as many bugle-horns stringed of the field. Mantling, sable and argent. Crest—On a wreath of the colours, a talbot passant proper, collared and lined or. Motto—"Je voul droit avoir."

The Huntley Arms certainly go back to A. D. 1300 or even earlier. This version is from an ancient painting which hangs in Boxwell Court.

Boxwell Court, Tetbury, Gloucestershire with the Parish Church adjoining, to the right. The Church's unique belfry is partly hidden by the lower branches of a cedar tree. The manor and freewarren of Boxwell was acquired by George Huntley during the reign of King James I from Sir Walter Raleigh, grantee from the Crown.

THE SCOTS HUNTLYS

Some descendants of John Huntley, the Immigrant, of Lyme, Connecticut and of Thomas Huntley who settled in Anson County, North Carolina believe that their ancestor came from Scotland. No proof has been established for this belief, however. The Huntlys were a sept or clan which owed its allegiance to the ancient and powerful Clan Gordon whose Chief over the centuries has been titled the Earl or Marquis of Huntly. The history of the Clan Gordon is practically the history of Scotland and their beautiful Castle at Huntly in Aberdeenshire has added luster to the name, Huntly.

A "sept" or "clan" in Scotland meant a "family" and "clan" or "sept" was used interchangeably by early writers.

The Huntlys may have been of Celtic origin, taking their name from either the place of that name or from the title of their Chief or patron.

Quite a few families of Huntlys from Scotland came to the United States in the 19th century and settled in California, Massachusetts and Wisconsin.

For those interested in tartans, the Red Huntly is presumed to be the oldest pattern associated with the Gordons and seems to have been a district rather than a family tartan. This tartan may have been based on a much older sett but the Huntly came into common use in the Northeast of Scotland after 1745 and it bears a remarkable resemblance to the tartans worn by the Brodies, Forbeses, Macraes and Rosses.

/ between given names indicates that the individual can be found in various records by either name. Huntley men were often known only by their middle name.

Place names found in this book enclosed in a bracket or in parenthesis such as [Lyme, Conn. 2:22] indicates that the original record can be found in either Lyme, Conn. Deed Book or Vital Record Book 2, page 22. The source for probate records will be the same.

Each male Huntley who became the head of a family is given a number unless it appears that he left no posterity. All others appear at least twice, first as son of his father and then as head of his own family.

Each female Huntley has all information known about her given when she is first mentioned.

Since there are only seven generations of Huntleys mentioned in this book I have not bothered to number the generations. It is quite easy to find a generation as the immigrant ancestor is usually considered to be the first generation. Example: 2. Moses Huntley (John)—Moses Huntley would be of the second generation. 24. Jabez Huntley, Jr. (Jabez, Moses, Moses, John) would be of the fifth generation.

A given name which is seldom used will be enclosed by a parenthesis.

PART I

JOHN HUNTLEY, THE IMMIGRANT

John Huntley, the founder of the Lyme, Connecticut family and the progenitor of most of the Huntley families in Canada and in the United States was probably born in the British Isles in either England or Scotland. The exact place of his birth is not known and even the year of his birth is unknown as his age at any given year has not been found. The fact that John Huntley had a wife in 1647 and was in business would seem to indicate that he was of age and perhaps in his mid-twenties so was therefore born between the years 1622 and 1626.

The first written record of John Huntley in America appears in the records of William Aspinwall, a Notary Public of Boston, Mass. Bay Colony on 12 July, 1647 when John signed as a witness for a Power-of-Attorney for Thomas Bayes and again in 1648 when he was a witness for Thomas Foster.

In these same records there is also an account dated 1 May, 1648 between John Pease and John Huntley about a load of fish which Huntley had shipped to the Barbados in the "Welcome", Mr. John Allen Master.

In this connection, some Huntley historians have claimed that John Huntley had come to Boston by way of the Barbados. If this claim was true, then John may have known or be related to a William Huntley, an inhabitant of St. Philip's Parish, Barbados.

According to the Smith Collection on West Indian Families in the London, England Genealogical Society, this William Huntley died in St. Philip's Parish and was buried there 1 August, 1679 being the owner of 5 acres of land and 2 slaves. Barbados in the Windward Islands was claimed by an English expedition in 1605 and has been steadily under the English flag. Sugar, cotton, rum and molasses were raised and exported.

William Huntley of St. Philip's Parish with his 5 acres doubtlessly raised cotton—perhaps the same cotton for which John Huntley of Boston traded his loads of fish.

Proof that John Huntley had a first wife exists in the deposition of John Pease, aged 65 years, dated Boston 1 July, 1679; "29 or 30 years ago, Mr. Hanniford, Mariner, lived in Boston in the house next adjoining the house and grounds of Hope Allison, standing on land on which William Griggs lately built an house and this house and land was accounted to be Hanniford's own property and John Huntley lived on and thereof and paid the said Hanniford rent for the same and said Huntley's wife died there of small-pox. They were Mr. Hanniford's tenants."

About the year 1649, a Sarah Huntley, along with "divers women of Boston" signed a petition. This Sarah could have been John Huntley's first wife who died of small-pox ca. 1650 in Mr. Hanniford's house in Boston.

Perhaps in 1651, John Huntley married for his 2nd wife, Jane, whose maiden name is unknown, however that given name was used in the families of John Hanniford, John Huntley's landlord and Philip Curtis, with whom he was in partnership. Incidentally, the given name "Curtis" appears in the 4th generation of the Huntley family in Lyme, Conn.

John Huntley's reasons for removing from Roxbury, Mass. to Lyme, Conn. are not apparent but it may have been through his acquaintance with Richard Smith who settled in Lyme about 1660. Richard Smith made a deposition that John Huntley was in Salem, Mass. about 1650 stating "Jno Huntley being at the Iron Works". [Ipswich Quarterly Court Records] This Richard Smith appears to be that Richard, aged 14 yrs., who came to America with his parents, John and Alice Smith on the ship "Planter" in 1635. Richard Smith's sister, Mary, married Amos Richardson of Stonington, Conn. and his sister, Alice, married (1) John Tinker of New London, Conn. and (2) William Measuer of Lyme, Conn. Note that William Measuer witnessed John Huntley's Will in 1676.

Vital records of the City of Boston:

Aaron, sonne of John and Jane Huntley bourne: 15 April, 1654
By 1657 John Huntley and family had removed to Roxbury for the records of John Eliot, Pastor of the 1st Church of Roxbury show the following:
20 (day) 10 moneth 1657 _____ Huntley, wife of John Huntley admitted a member.
27th day 10th month 1657 baptized Moses Huntley
Aaron Huntley
Elizabeth Huntley
3rd day 12th month 1660 baptized Mary Huntley
27 Feb., 1659—John Huntley, cooper, in company with John Chandler, both of Roxbury, deed to Philip Curtis for £23 worth of cattle, the house and shop of John Huntley with an orchard of 1 acre in Roxbury and also four acres of pasture land of John Chandler. [Suffolk Co., Mass. 3:334]

In the matter of the Estate of William Peacock of Roxbury, Mass., John Huntley was listed as a creditor. He and Philip Curtis had been in partnership with Mr. Peacock and an amicable settlement had been signed by the partners 29 Jan., 1660/1. Perhaps soon after this settlement and in the year 1661, John Huntley removed from Roxbury to that section of Saybrook, Connecticut Colony called "East Saybrook" on the east bank of the "greate river, Connecticut". The growing settlement on the east bank soon desired to become a new "plantation" and this was accomplished by a mutual agreement between Saybrook and the inhabitants of the new town called "The Loving Parting" dated 13 Feb., 1665. The Connecticut General Court named the "new plantation" Lyme, 9 May, 1667, presumably in honor of Lyme Regis in England from which place, Mathew Griswold, one of the earliest settlers, had come.

Sometime before 1669, Jane, 2nd wife of John Huntley died and Commissioner Thomas Miner of Stonington penned in his Diary: "The fouerth moneth is June and hath 30 day. tusday the first the day the Court (at New London) began, that court I maried huntley and marie barons—1669". New London, Conn. County Court Records [2:36] affirm this marriage.

Contrary to previously printed assumptions, Marie Barons or Mary Barnes was not the daughter of John Barnes or more correctly, William Barnes of Gloucester, Mass.

Instead she is apparently Mary Hand, daughter of John Hand of Long Island, who, in the same New London Court, had received just a month previously a divorce from her husband, Charles Barnes, the first school teacher in East Hampton, L. I., who evidently had deserted his wife and children and returned to England.

Very shortly thereafter John Huntley and his wife, Mary, were convicted of fornication before marriage and while she was still married to her former husband and were assessed a fine of £10. [New London County Court Records 2:44] The late Donald Lines Jacobus of New Haven, Conn., an eminent genealogist states that this was a very heavy fine for the time and the place. [The American Genealogist 35:16] John Huntley died in Lyme 16 Nov., 1676. [Lyme, Conn. 1:44]: "The last Will & Testament of John Huntley, being very sick & weak of body, but of perfect memory 16 November, 1676.

Imprimis: I give & bequeath my Soule to God that gave (it) & my body to the earth from whence it came to be decently buried at the discretion of my executors hereafter mentioned.

2. I give and bequeath to my dear & beloved wife the one thurd part of all my estate & my dwelling house to live in peacably during her natural life.

3. The cost of becoming a settler in Lyme apparently was £100 per family, the whole township being an estate of some £3,500. Perhaps 35 individuals purchased a share of the new plantation but a few sold out to others so that only 30 families can be considered the "first settlers" of Lyme.

Of these 30, John Huntley shared in the first division of land thusly: John Huntley hath laid out for his portion of land granted by the Town (Saybrook) on the east side of Saybrook (Lyme) for an hundred pound estate from—71 acres for his lott and twenty acres for his calf pasture land. The meadow within it is bounded South by the land of William Measurer; on the North by the commons, on the West by the highway and on the east by the commons. [Lyme Town Record Book—12 July, 1665] The following records show where John's property was laid out using the quaint language and spelling of the original as found in Lyme, Conn. [1:30] and recorded 20 July, 1674: John Huntley hath layed out to him on the middle of calfe oyland tow ackers of medow more or less bounded every way with the watter.

He hath also layed out to him a home lott containing forty-three ackers of upland more or less bounded West upon the highwaye, North on Baltishaser DeWolfes land, South upon Mr. Mesuers land, East upon the comons laying one both sids of Ducke River with one dwelling house.

Also three ackers and halfe of medow at the head of Ducke River bounded on the medow of Mr. Mesuer, North on the swampe of Baltishaser DeWolfe, East and West with his one land; attested by Mathew Griswold and Renald Marvine.

11 March, 1674: John Huntley his eare marke is one halfe pene cut one the under side of each ear and a slitte on the toppe of the near eare.
14 March, 1676/7: Laid out to the estate of John Huntly one both sides foure mile river twenty acres of upland and medow be it more or less @ is bounded West with the commons, South with the land set out for Henory Benet, East with the commons, North with the lands of John Larebe—east and west 55 rods, north and south 49 rods: the aforsd twenty acres being in the second division—attested by us: Mathew Griswold the 26 Febb. 1676/7 Thomas Lee

[Lyme, Conn. 2:48]

25 Sept., 1702: Laid out to the estate of John Huntley, deceased and taken up by his son, Aaron Huntley, executor to his estate, ninety-five acres of land be it more or less, at Walnut Tree Hill, the most westward hill, beginning at the northward end, being in length two hundred and ten rods; in width at the northward end 14 chains, at the southward end 22 chains, at the northwest corner with a black oak tree marked on all four sides, and a chestnut stadell standing by it marked; at the northeast corner with a stadell marked on four sides, at the southeast corner with a chestnut tree marked on four sides, at the southwest corner with a white oak tree marked on four sides, being upon the account of the last part of the fourth division, it being in full satisfaction for the same. [Lyme, Conn. 2:78]

At a public town-meeting held 9 Feb., 1674, Lt. Renold Marvin and John Huntley were chosen Townsmen or Selectmen. Also at this meeting John Huntley and Joseph Peck were chosen to go with Mr. Chapman to measure the lands that Chapman desired of the Town and to give a report of it. At previous town-meetings held in 1671, 1672 and 1673, "Goodman" Huntley was chosen one of the surveyors.
Along with many of his neighbors, John Huntley participated in the New London-Lyme Riot of 12 March, 1671/2 when the two groups fought with sticks and staves in a difficulty arising over the boundary line between the two Towns.
According to the Will of John Huntley, his son and executor, Aaron, was required to pay ten pounds apiece to the other heirs upon his taking possession of all the remaining estate at the death of the Widow Mary Huntley. This requirement, Aaron apparently fulfilled as in Lyme, Conn. [3:153] are two receipts dated 5 July, 1687 and 8 March,

1688 signed by Elizabeth (Huntley) Lewis and her husband, John Lewis, of New London, Conn. that she had received her £10. [Recorded 28 March, 1728]
Moses Huntley acknowledged that he had received full satisfaction of all that his father, John Huntley, had willed him from Aaron Huntley, executor of the estate and signed his receipt 8 June, 1688. This document was not recorded until 19 September, 1702. [Lyme, Conn. 2:78]
Although these three receipts seem to be the only ones acknowledged and recorded in the Town of Lyme, it seems adequate proof that widow Mary Huntley had died prior to 5 July, 1687.

8. Jedediah, b. 24 Jan., 1724; m. Irena Ruttey.

4. iii. John, b. 9 Sept., 1686

Moses Huntley was baptized in the First Church of Roxbury, Mass. 27 Oct., 1657 by John Eliot, pastor. With his brother, Aaron and others from Lyme Moses took part in King Philip's War in 1675 and was awarded "a soldier's right", Lot #30 in the unsettled "volunteer's town" now Voluntown, Conn. Moses sold this lot to Nicholas Hallam of New London, Conn. 20 Sept., 1709. [Voluntown, Conn. 1:13]

At a Town meeting held in Lyme 22 Dec., 1685 Moses Huntley was chosen Packer (of beef and pork) and he held this particular office on and off until 1708 when he was also chosen "Culler of staves". The making of staves and their exportation was a very important occupation at that time in Lyme.

At the Lyme Town Meeting held in June, 1687 Moses Huntley was granted the 26th "lotte" at "Barnes farm" valued at 18 pounds, 3 shillings, 7 pence. In the 4th division of land distributed at a Town meeting held 9 June, 1702 Moses Huntley made choice of his father's 33rd lot at Walnut-tree Hill being 96¼ acres. Walnut-tree Hill is described as "the most Westward Hill" and the cost at 2s/6d per acre amounted to twelve pounds, two pence. At a meeting of the Townsmen (Selectmen) of Lyme held 1 March, 1680/81 Moses was ordered to pay for the schooling of his "son", William Comstock.

William Comstock of Lyme, with his Mother, Abigail Huntly, "do dispose & pass over to Robert Lattimore of New London, our right & title to oure lot in New London lying against Goodwife Waller's on the west side of the highway".—12 Sept., 1691. [New London, Conn. 5:133] William Comstock signed his name to this deed but Abigail made her mark thusly: "A."

Moses Huntley, Sr. sold land in Lyme as late as 1729 and he may have died in that year. There are, unfortunately, no probate proceedings about Moses, Sr. as he apparently disposed of all of his estate both moveable or real prior to his death.

Moses Huntley, Sr. seems to have had his troubles and New London County Court Records [7:327] show the following: Benjamin Niles as attorney to the heirs of the Estate of John Comstock, late of Lyme, deceased, Plaintiff contra Moses Huntley of Lyme, defendant "in an action of the case with damages to the value of fifty pounds in money for suffering (allowing) to go to ruin & neglecting to keep up in tenantable repair the house of the deceased John Comstock contrary to the laws of this Colony & to the great damage of the heirs". Non-suit is granted in this action.

Moses Huntley, Sr. lived in Lyme peacably with his neighbors but he seems to have been aggrieved by the conditions of his father's Will for as early as 1677 and as late as 1702 he was giving his younger brother, Aaron, a bad time as shown by New London County Court Records [3:96]—18 Sept., 1677: "This Court having heard the complaint of Aaron Huntley against his Brother, Moses Huntley and finds him guilty of challenging & Threatening his sd Brother & threatening his wife and also his sister, abuseing them all with very abusive language & a great disturbance of the peace & render himself a very dangerous man & showed much profanes (sic) not haveing any fear of God, the Court doe see themselves bound to beare witness against such enormities & that he doth deserve a high & severe censure but in consideration of his acknowledgement in some degree his fault & having reconciled himselfe unto his brother & promiseing amendment in ye future, the Court orders & appoints him that he pay a fine to the County treasury fifty shillings & give bond of tenn pounds dureing the Courts pleasure for his keeping the peace & good behavior for the time to come. Moses Huntley acknowledges himself bound in recognizance of tenn pounds unto the Treasury of this County for his keeping the peace & good behavior dureing the Courts pleasure for the time to come".

Attst Jno. Birchard

"This Court having something testimonial presented concerning Moses Huntley see cause to release him of his bond as:

Attst Jno. Birchard, Clerke".

(The last paragraph was in a different colored ink, not dated.)
That Moses Huntley had threatened his brother, Aaron, with a gun seems evident in the fact that at the same Court held 18 Sept., 1677 [New London County Court Records 3:97] there is a case of Moses Huntley versus Aaron Huntley "for takeing & detaining a gun of Moses, damages six pounds". The verdict was "the return of the gun to Moses as well fixed (illegible) as it was taken from, a five shilling fine & costs of the Court".

New London County Court Records [7:325]—15 Sept., 1702: Aaron Huntley contra Moses Huntley for "unjustly molesting him in his rights to the last part of the fourth division of land in Lyme belonging to the estate of Father, John Huntley, deceased". The Court found for the defendant. Aaron was dissatisfied and filed an appeal to be heard in the next Court of Assistants at New Haven, Conn.

[Lyme, Conn. 2:48]—"I, Moses Huntley do declare that I am hartyly sory that I should dishonor God and wrong my Brother Aaron Huntley and my kinsman Aaron Huntley in reporting that his son Aaron stole an axe from Francis Smith and brought it to him sd Huntley and that the sd Smith had it of him again with some trouble—all which I doe acknowledge to be utterly false and untrue and that I never knew any such thing by my sd kinsman and brother and therefore doe hertyley bege their forgiveness as witness my hand this 18th Febr 1700"

3. Moses Huntley, Jr. (Moses, John) born Lyme, Conn. 31 May, 1681 died East Haddam, Conn. prior to 29 Oct., 1757. He married in Lyme 21 Jan., 1706/7 Rachel Harris perhaps dau. of William Harris who came to Lyme from Block Island, R. I.

vi. perhaps Jerusha, m. East Haddam, Conn. 10 Feb., 1746/7 Antipas Tisdale.

Moses Huntley, Jr.'s wife, Rachel Harris, could be a daughter of William Harris of Block Island, R. I., a blacksmith, who came to Lyme, Conn. where he died by Sept., 1693. Rachel Harris was born about 1689 as her age is given as 15 when she testified in a court case. [New London County Court Files—Sept., 1704] Mr. William Harris' widow, Elizabeth, apparently daughter of Alexander and Catherine Innis of Taunton, Mass. and Block Island, R. I., married (2) Richard Smith of Lyme who died before 1705. Richard Smith's Will mentions Richard Harris, son of his wife, Elizabeth. The given names, Richard Harris, have been used for many generations by this particular line of the Huntleys.

Earmarks for cattle or other farm animals were very necessary for the colonial farmer; those recorded in Lyme, Conn. seem to be unusually complete. "Moses Huntly marke is a halfe crope on the under side of near ear & a halfe pene on the under side of each ear—2 Jan., 1685". Moses Huntly Junior marketh with his father's mark by his consent".

At a Town Meeting held in Lyme, Conn. 17 Jan., 1714 Moses Huntley, Jr. was admitted an inhabitant. Moses Huntley, Jr. (also called Moses 2nd) with the consent of his wife, Rachel, sold for £350 his dwelling house and about 70 acres of land at Walnut Hill to Nathaniel Avery—10 April, 1736. [Lyme, Conn. 6:34]

12 Oct., 1757—Letters of Administration granted to William Huntley on ye estate of Moses Huntley late of East Haddam, Conn. [Colchester, Conn. Probate Court 2:447] Inventory dated 28 Oct., 1757 consisting of personal property—£32.7.5. 6 March, 1758—Capt. Nathan Jewett, Lemuel Griffin and Amos Randall appointed to distribute the personal estate according to law.

4. John Huntley (Moses, John) born Lyme, Conn. 9 Sept., 1686; died time and place unknown. He married in Lyme, Conn. before 13 Oct., 1709 Susanna (DeWolf) Champion, widow of Henry Champion, Jr., born in Lyme ca. 1668 daughter of Balthazar and Alice DeWolf. The time and place of her death are not known.

Children:

9. i. John, b. Lyme, Conn. 3 June, 1709

ii. perhaps Mary, bapt. Burlington, N. J. 25 Feb., 1719.

From New London County Court Records it appears that the widow Susanna Champion was in the habit of spending the night at the home of Moses and Abigail Huntley and was found in bed with their son, John. Mary (DeWolf) Griswold, wife of Mathew Griswold, Jr., testified that she had dealt angrily with her sister Susannah, on that account and also rebuked Abigail, mother of John, for "harboring her son in sinne". A letter dated 7 June, 1709 from Mrs. Susannah Champion to James Rogers, Jr. of New London, Conn. states that she "was delivered ye last 6th day of the week of a child unlawfully begotten by John Huntley of Lyme" and asks that she "may not be deprived of ye benefit of ye law". By the 13th Oct., 1709 John Huntley and Susannah had married because her son, Henry Champion, 3rd, calls her "my honored Mother, Susannah Huntley and my father-in-law, John Huntley, have granted me, etc.". [Lyme, Conn. 2:72]

John and Susannah Huntley may have removed from Connecticut about this time and lived in New Jersey as the Register of St. Mary's Church in Burlington, N. J. records the baptism of a Susannah and Mary Huntley 25 Feb., 1719. If so, they returned to Lyme as shown by the following deeds. "Lyme March ye 9th day 1732—We, the subscribers do give and make over unto our honnoured mother Susannah Huntly all our right and title unto the land where she now dwells and consent unto and allow her if she see cause to make sale unto any person of sd land and do by these presents acquit, release all Right and claim that it may be enfeoff we may have to sd land"—signed: Henry Champion [Lyme, Conn. 3:369] John and Susannah Huntley sold this same property to William Peck for £155 on 10 March, 1734/5. [Lyme, Conn. 4:515] This deed appears to be the last record of John and Susannah Huntley either in Lyme or in New London County, Conn. unless he is the John Huntley who either died or was dismissed from the Lyme Congregational Church 27 Dec., 1741. See Donald Lines Jacobus' article "The Huntley-Champion Connection" in The American Genealogist [33:44].

5. Moses Huntley (Moses, Jr., Moses, John) born Lyme, Conn. before 1720; died Fort Edward, New York 19 August, 1760. He married Mary Sawyer who was living in Lyme, Conn. as late as 14 Nov., 1764 daughter of Jacob and Martha (Loomer) Sawyer.

11. iii. Jabez, b. ca. 1 July, 1740

iv. perhaps Peggy, b. ca. 1756

During the French & Indian Wars Moses Huntley served in the Campaign of 1757 in Capt. Adonijah Fitch's 7th Co., Col. Phineas Lyman's Conn. Regt. In the Campaign of 1758 Moses served in Capt. Timothy Mather's 11th Co., 3rd Conn. Regt and in 1759 he served as a Sgt. in Capt. Zebulon Butler's 9th Co., Col. Eleazer Fitch's 4th Conn. Regt. Moses Huntley is listed among the 4th Conn. Regt. of Provincial Troops taken to his Majesty's Hospital at Fort Edward, New York from 30 July to 24 Oct., 1760. He died there 19 August, 1760.

Moses Huntley conveyed to his son, Benejah, (both of East Haddam) 65 acres in East Haddam—1 Feb., 1750/51. [East Haddam, Conn. 5:9] Benejah Huntley gave his father, Moses, property in East Haddam which he had purchased of Daniel Driggs for 1,010 pounds, (a very large sum for that period)—2 March, 1750. [East Haddam, Ct. 4:398] Benejah Huntley sold land and a good mansion house in the East Society of East Haddam by the highway from Lyme to East Haddam to Lemuel Griffing—28 May, 1762. [East Haddam, Conn. 6:421] Benejah apparently lived in East Haddam from 1750 until 1762 when he returned to Lyme, Conn.

Lydia Huntley, wife of Benejah Huntley, Jr., was appointed administratrix of Benejah Huntley, Sr.'s estate 13 June, 1775.

The inventory of Benejah's estate was taken by Harris Coult & Benjamin Way. It consisted mostly of personal property and the total amounted to only £7:7:10. Final administration made on 7 Jan., 1776 mentions that the widow was allowed £2:10 for a suit of mourning and £5 for support of herself & children.

Rufus Huntley served in the Revolution as a Seaman aboard the Mass. State sloop "Winthrop" commanded by Capt. George Little, engaged 30 May, 1782; discharged 1 Oct., 1782. He was probably the Rufus Huntley, seaman, delivered by Col. Johannot to Charles Waller, commissary of prisoners in Rhode Island 17 March, 1778. Jabez Huntley, Sr. gave a deed in Machias, Me. in 1787 to his son, Rufus Huntley of Virginia, a mariner. [Washington Co., Me. 1:103]

24. v. Jabez, Jr. b. Lyme, Conn. ca. 1760

vi. Sallie, b. prob. in Nova Scotia ca. 1761; m. in Machias, Me. 17 July, 1787 Achbel Barnes, b. New Haven, Conn. 16 March, 1757; living Cutler, Me. in 1850 aged 95 years (sic), in the family of Samuel Bagley aged 55 and Sally Bagley aged 47, perhaps his daughter.

vii. Helana, b. ca. 1764; m. _____ Demmons. Perhaps the following could be her children:
Children (surname DEMMONS):
1. Thomas J., b. ca. 1804; m. Sarah B. _____
2. Levi, b. ca. 1807; m. Mary _____ viii. Adriel, b. ca. 1766; no other data.

Probably two more children should be added to the family of Jabez Huntley No. 8. and these are Helena and Zarniah/Zerish Huntley who are mentioned on page 21, "Roots of the Past in Washington County, Maine", [974.1-C.W.31] at the Maine State Library, Augusta, Maine. "Zarniah, dau. of Josiah Huntley mar. David Gardner, b. 6-19-1750 son of David (6) and Mary (Gardner) Gardner of Nantucket, Mass. Helena Huntley, dau. of Josiah Huntley, mar. Elijah Gardner, b. 12-8-1752 @Nantucket, son of David (6) Gardner".

I have found no other mention of a Josiah Huntley of this period in any New England record of any type. It is obvious that both David and Elijah Gardner would have married wives younger than they and there is plenty of room in the family of Jabez between his son, Rufus Huntley No. 22, born ca. 1752 and his son, Adriel Huntley, born ca. 1766, to place both Helena and Zerish Huntley. Incidentally, daughters of Zerish (Huntley) Gardner married Daniel Huntley No. 47. and Rufus Huntley No. 53.

Jabez Huntley, Sr. was the owner of 1 share in the Township of Horton, King's Co., Nova Scotia. He removed from Lyme, Conn. to Nova Scotia about 1761 and settled around Kingsport and Canard but after about 10 years sold his holdings which included 150 acres of dyked marsh for 10 pounds, a suit of clothing and a beaver hat and went to what is now Machias, Maine where he lived near Gardner's Lake. According to legend in the family his reason for selling out in Nova Scotia was "the upland is no good; it has no stones in it".

While still in Conn. Jabez Huntley, Sr. saw service in the French and Indian Wars in the Campaign of 1758 in Capt. Timothy Mather's 11th Co., 3rd Conn. Regt. from 14 April to 18 Nov. In 1759 he served in Capt. Zebulon Butler's 9th Co., Col. Eleazer Fitch's 4th Conn. Regt. During the Revolution Jabez, Sr. served as a Sgt. in Capt. Stephen Smith's Co. from 14 Sept. to 13 Dec., 1775 at Machias, Maine for the defence of the seacoast. He was reduced to Pvt. 1 Nov., 1775. [Massachusetts Soldiers & Sailors in the War of the Revolution 8:555] He may also have served as a Pvt. in Capt. Joseph Seavey's Co., Col. Benj. Foster's Regt. from 5 Dec. to 25 Dec., 1778. Mrs. Elizabeth Sanborn wrote that the legend existed at Machias that Gen. Joseph Warren died in Jabez Huntley, Sr.'s arms at Bunker Hill. This fact may not be true, however Jabez Huntley, Jr. named one of his sons, Joseph Warren Huntley and the given name, Warren, has been used in this line of the family for more than 100 years. The Huntley name has been commemorated in Washington Co., Maine by a mountain carrying that name just south of East Machias and Huntley Creek at the head of Holmes Bay. There is also a Huntley "survey point" at Little Machias.

9. John Huntley, Jr. (John, Moses, John) born Lyme, Conn. 3 June, 1709; perhaps the John Huntley who died at Trenton, Hunterdon Co., N. J. ca. 1 July, 1784. He married Lyme, Ct. 22 July, 1741 Hannah Pierson of Guilford, Conn.

Jabez Huntley and Sarah, his wife and Silas Beckwith sell to Amos Huntley of Lyme, land adjacent said Amos on the West and from the highway, 2½ acres—15 August, 1775. [Lyme, Conn. 14:12] This deed proves the marriage of Jabez to Mrs. Sarah Beckwith. Silas Beckwith presumably Sarah's son has come of age by 1775. Jabez Huntley is listed in the Census of 1790 in Westfield, Mass. This Jabez Huntley probably served in the French-Indian Wars in the Campaign of 1762 as a Pvt. in Capt. Zebulon Butler's 8th Co., Gen. Lyman's Regt. from 15 March to 9 December. He served in the American Revolution enlisting at Lyme, Conn. 1 Jan., 1776 in Capt. Joseph Jewett's Co., Col. Some of the Huntley historians have given Howell as many as three wives but from Lyme deeds it appears that he had only the one wife, Sarah Wood. Sarah was living in 1834 when her daughter, Lydia Bogue, gave life use of a house and 19 acres in Lyme to her parents. [Lyme, Conn. 34:330]

Adriel Huntley served in the American Revolution from Lyme on the Lexington Alarm List of 1775. An affadavit made by Howell Huntley, Adriel's brother, stated that Adriel was promised a Sergeant's rank if he would return home and enlist eight men in ten days time. He enlisted 12 men the day after he reached home and they returned to Roxbury, Mass. The men were Elihu Huntley, Abner Huntley, George Manwaring, James Tillotson, Silas Wood, Reuben Saunders, Jonathan Miner, Guy McIntosh, Jonathan Huntley (my brother), Charles Miner brother to Adriel's wife, now Lucy Stedman, Sylvanus Avery and one other. Adriel served as Sgt. for the year. Howell made this affadavit in Lyme 12 Sept., 1838.

Lucy Huntly

There seems but little doubt that this Lucy Huntly is the widow of Adriel Huntley. Lucy had a daughter, Lucretia, born in Lyme in 1780. Lucretia, too became pregnant and had a child born prior to 4th June, 1800 as the Town of Lyme paid Lebbeus Beckwith on 4 August, 1800 for "keeping Lucretia Huntley's child 3 weeks from 4th June". The Town of Lyme also paid Dan Huntley in Jan. 1802 for "supporting Lucretia Huntley's child from last payment to 1 April, 1801 also for 1 pr. shoes, 1 pr. stockings & 1 petticoat for sd. child. 5 July, 1802. The Town of Lyme paid Constant Crocker for searching for _____ Minard accused as father of Lucretia Huntley's child. The Dan Huntley in this case seems to be No. 56 in the Aaron Huntley line.

Thomas Huntley served in the Revolution in the 2nd New York Regt. and was granted Pension Cert. #2,917 but apparently did not live long enough to collect on it. His grandson, Hiram Cook, claimed that Thomas Huntley served as one of George Washington's "Life-Guards". Thomas is listed in the Census of 1800 living in the Town of Groton, Conn. but there are no vital records or deeds on file concerning him or his family there. Some of the Groton, Conn. records, however, were destroyed by fire about 1905. He is listed in Preston, Conn. as follows; Thomas Huntley —Poll Tax List of 1794 for the 3rd Society of Preston @ £18. His widow, Anna Huntley, is listed as head of the family in the 1820 Census of the Town of Preston, Conn.

19. Jonathan Huntley (Benejah, Moses, Moses, John) born Lyme, Conn. ca. 1757; died Dummerston, Vt. 27 May, 1834 aged 77 years. He married in Lyme ca. 1779 Betsey Miner, born New London, Conn. 25 May, 1751; died Dummerston, Vt. 12 Nov., 1835 daughter of Ebenezer and Betsey (Rowley) Miner.
Child:

43. i. Lyman, b. ca. 1797

Jonathan Huntley served in the Revolution in Capt. Abner Lord's Co., Col. Ely's Regt. in 1776. In 1777 he served in Capt. Jonathan Caulkin's Co., Col. Ledyard's Regt. Jonathan Huntley was the Baptist minister at Dummerston when the First and Second churches were united 2 Nov., 1827. The First Baptist Church in Lyme, Conn. received a request from Jonathan Huntley and wife "now living in Vermont" and asking to be released from their covenant with that church—2 Oct., 1795. Jonathan served in the Vermont General Assembly (1812-18) and again (1822-23). He lived in Marlow, N. H. 13 Sept., 1791 when he bought land in Putney, Vt. from Aaron Cole. He owned land in Putney, Vt. until 5 April, 1803 when he sold out to Alexander Graham for $1,700 with the consent of his wife, Betsey.

Jonathan and Betsey Huntley are buried in the West Dummerston, Vt. Village cemetery.

20. Moses Huntley (Benejah, Moses, Moses, John) born Lyme, Conn. ca. 1760; died St. Johnsbury, Vt. 1 March, 1846 aged 85 yrs., 7 mos. He married in Lyme before 29 July, 1779 Hannah Miner, born New London, Conn. 1 August, 1758; died Waterford, Vt. 27 May, 1841 daughter of Ebenezer and Betsey (Rowley) Miner.
Children:

45. iii. Dennis, b. Lempster, N. H. 4 June, 1797

Moses Huntley served in the Revolution in Col. Tyler's Brigade under Gen. Sullivan in R. I. in August and Sept., 1778. In July, 1779 he joined Capt. Lee Lay's Co. and helped build Fort Griswold in Groton, Conn. About 1787 Moses removed to Marlow, N. H. and lived in that town and in Lempster for about 13 years when he removed to Putney, Vt. where he remained for about 2 years before finally settling in Waterford, Vt. Moses Huntley was a carpenter and joiner. Moses marriage to Hannah Miner is proved by a bill dated 29 July, 1779 in Dr. Samuel Mather's account book: "Mr. Moses Huntley married Hannah Miner, Ebenezer Miner's daughter".

Moses Huntley sold his farm in Marlow, N. H. on the Lempster south line adjoining Aaron Huntley's farm to John Noyes Brockway 25 March, 1800. [Cheshire Co., N. H. 34:121] Moses was placed on the pension list 27 May, 1833 aged 74 years.

21. Frederick Huntley (Jabez, Moses, Moses, John) born Lyme, Conn. ca. 1750; place and time of death unknown. He probably married in Kings Co., Nova Scotia Mary Elizabeth Caldwell.
Children:

6. Jackson, b.
7. Farnum, b. 1829

53. x. Reuben, b. 1797
54. xi. Rufus, b. 1798

Frederick Huntley did not come down to Machias from Horton, Kings Co., Nova Scotia until about 1789 as Census records show that most of his children were born in Nova Scotia. Frederick's wife is called both Mary and Lizzie Colewell or Caldwell. She was probably Mary Elizabeth Caldwell and a grandchild of William Caldwell who removed from Conn. to Horton, Nova Scotia and died at Gaspereau in 1802 aged 107 years. According to the History of Kings County, Nova Scotia William Caldwell from England "jumped ship" off the coast of New England and swam ashore. It is probably this Caldwell legend which was handed down in the Frederick Huntley line and wrongly told, attributed the "jumped ship" episode to Jabez Huntley, Sr. No. 8. Frederick Huntley is listed in the Federal Census of 1790 at Plantation #12.

24. Jabez Huntley, Jr. (Jabez, Moses, Moses, John) born Lyme, Conn. ca. 1760; died place unknown in Oct., 1816. He married Machias, Me. 23 Dec., 1782 Betty Smith, born 13 March, 1768; died 28 Nov., 1816 daughter of Isaac and Sarah (Wiswell) Smith.

Jabez Huntley, Jr. served in the Revolution as a Pvt. in Capt. Joseph Seavey's Co., Col. Benjamin Foster's Regt. from 23 June to 16 July, 1777. This company was ordered to duty by Col. Foster for the defense of Machias and adjacent rivers when the British ship "Ambuscade" lay in the harbor at Machias. Jabez, Jr. also had other enlistments through 1779.

Jabez Huntley, Jr. with his wife, Betty, sold his farm in Plantation #14 25 Nov., 1814 and removed to Plattsburg, N. Y. [Washington Co., Me. 10:448] Jabez Huntley, Jr. and family arrived in Plattsburg in the Winter and stayed until Spring when they resumed their journey to the West. A story told by descendants relates that Jabez, Jr. found his brother, Rufus Huntley, living on the shores of Lake Ontario and liking the area decided to settle there but both Jabez, Jr. and his wife became ill and died within a month of each other. The children returned to Plattsburg where they remained until after 1830.

The following article about Jabez Huntley, Jr. appears in Maine Historical & Genealogical Records, Vol. 9, No. 1: "In 1800 one, Jabez

Betty Smith, wife of Jabez Huntley, No. 24
(1768 - 1816)

Jabez Huntley, No. 24
(1760 - 1816)

Huntley, lived in Plantation No. 14 seven miles from Dennysville in a log house on the stepped road leading from the latter place to Machias and one Summer day while on this road, gun in hand, accompanied by his son, he saw in his path before him a big black-bear and quick as thought he discharged his piece into bruins head, wounding him severely; at which the bear made a hasty retreat for the woods with Huntley in close pursuit. Suddenly the enraged brute turned upon his pursuer and clasped him firmly in one of his characteristic hugs but by superhuman power Huntley threw his antagonist to the ground but was unable to free himself from his close embrace until his son came to his rescue and dealt such heavy blows upon the bear's head with his gun-stock that the animal was forced to relinquish his deadly grasp. After finishing the bear whose weight was nearly 400 pounds, young Huntley with much difficulty succeeded in carrying his father home where he remained some months disabled from injuries received in the hard-fought contest".

The young Huntley mentioned in this thriller is probably Jabez, Jr.'s oldest son, Isaac Smith Huntley, who at 15 years of age, would be the only son strong enough to carry his father home.

25. Jehiel Huntley (John, John, Moses, John) born Lyme, Conn. 7 Feb., 1748/9; died probably Oxford, Chenango Co., N. Y. 7 May, 1833. Jehiel, without doubt, had a wife or wives previously to his marriage in 1814 to Naomi Bennett of Lyme, Conn. Naomi was previously married to Stephen Hall and William Phillips. She was living as late as 1848.

Presumed children:

62. i. Ebenezer, b. before 1770

63. ii. Richard, b. Lyme, Conn. 3 Nov., 1770

Jehiel Huntley served in the Revolution in Col. Salstonstall's Regt. in 1779 and was stationed at the Fort in New London, Conn. In April, 1782 he removed from Lyme, Conn. to Spencertown, N. Y. and enlisted in Capt. Pitcher's Co. which marched through Albany and Schenectady to Johnston to join Col. Hayden's Regt. The company remained there 4 months and then marched to Stone Arabia where he was discharged after two more months. Jehiel was pensioned in Chenango Co., N. Y. 25 April, 1833 called 89 years old. Jehiel was in Hillsdale, Columbia Co., N. Y. in the Census of 1790 with two males under 16 years old and two females. He was in Coxsackie, Greene Co., N. Y. in the Census of 1800 but removed to Oxford, Chenango Co., N. Y. before the Census of 1810 and remained there until his death. Jehiel acted as agent for Thomas Graves of New Concord, Columbia Co., N. Y. when he sold land in Lyme, Conn. to Thomas Angell. [Lyme, Conn. 14:508] "Jehiel Huntley's Power of Attorney from Thomas Graves: New Concord, 29 March, 1779: Know all men by these presents that I Thomas Graves do hereby empower Jehiel Huntley of this place to sell my house and land in Lyme and to give a deed of the same in my name and give fifty dollars to my Mother, Betsey Graves and return to me the rest and not to sell it under 15 pounds lawful money in silver or gold or other things equivalent". [Lyme, Conn. 14:507]

Because of Thomas Graves' trust in Jehiel Huntley I am inclined to believe that they could be related by marriage. Jehiel may have married a Graves. Richard Huntley, presumed son of Jehiel, named a son Mark G. Huntley. Mark was a given name used in the Graves family in Lyme, Conn.

26. Moses Huntley (Moses, Moses, Moses, John) born Gilsum, N. H. 29 June, 1768; died probably in Hartland, Vt. date unknown. Moses married (1) probably in Walpole, N. H. Sukey Thwing who died in Walpole 1 Oct., 1795 in her 24th year and (2) in Walpole 15 Jan., 1797 Sally Stevens who died at Hartland, Vt. 15 March, 1827 aged 58 years.
Child by Sukey:

i. Charles Ingalls, b. 1795; no other data

65. v. Moses, b. Hartland, Vt. 8 Dec., 1801
66. vi. William Hewes, b. Hartland, Vt. 31 Dec., 1806

The History of Walpole, N. H. states that Moses Huntley bought 4 acres in 1796 from Widow Julia Mahony. Moses' first wife, Sukey, is buried in the Walpole, N. H. cemetery.

27. Jabez Huntley (Jabez, Moses, Moses, John) born probably in Lyme, Conn. ca. 1770; lived Bainbridge, Chenango Co., N. Y. in 1830. The name of his wife is not known.
Probable children:

67. i. Elijah, b. ca. 1800
68. ii. Samuel H., b. Bainbridge, N. Y. 17 Feb., 1804
69. iii. Jabez, b. ca. 1810

This Jabez Huntley is probably the man listed in the Census of 1800 in Columbia Co., N. Y. He is apparently the Jabez Huntley who bought land from James Ashley in the Town of Middlefield, Otsego Co., N. Y. 5 Jan., 1819 but sold out to Derrick Farr 9 April, 1820. [Otsego Co., N. Y. EE:481 & 483]

By 1830 Jabez Huntley had settled in Bainbridge, Chenango Co., N. Y.

28. Abner Huntley (Abner, William, Moses, Moses, John) born Lyme, Conn. 4 August, 1773; died Cuba, Alleghany Co., N. Y. 10 March, 1877 aged 103-7-6. Abner married Margaret MacArthur who died at Cuba 3 April, 1856 aged 85 years, 3 days.

1. Margaret E., b. 1841
2. Horace, b. 1843; d. in the Civil War
3. Franklin, b. 1845
4. Huntley, b. 1847

Abner Huntley's gravestone in the Cuba, N. Y. cemetery gives his age at death as 109 years, 7 months and 6 days. This is obviously an error of exactly 6 years. Abner Huntley appeared in one of Ripley's "Believe It or Not" articles in which Ripley gave Abner's life-span as 1767 to 1877 and stating that Abner broke a wild horse at the age of 90 and led a parade riding horseback at the age of 107.

30. Seth Huntley (Abner, William, Moses, Moses, John) born Lyme, Conn. 29 June, 1780; died

ii. perhaps Ruth, b. ; m. Isaac J. Noxon and settled in Steuben Co., N. Y.

There are several Huntley girls mentioned in the book "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte" who might be children of Seth Huntley or of his brother, William Huntley No. 29, about whom little is known.

31. Jason Huntley (Abner, William, Moses, Moses, John) born possibly in Kinderhook, Columbia Co., N. Y. ca. 1785; died after 1851. He married in Ernestown, Lennox & Addington Cos., Ontario 7 Feb., 1812, widow Mary Walker. [Marriage Register of St. John's Anglican Church, Ernestown]

Jason and Mary Huntley are listed in the Census of 1851 living in Kingston Township, Frontenac County, Ontario in that part of the township "comprising the 2nd Concession, Mile Square and the Western addition".

Jason Huntley was a wheelwright, born in the United States, belonged to the Church of England and stated he would be 67 his next birthday.

Jason's wife, the widow Mary Walker, was born in the United States and stated that she would be 87 her next birthday.

If Mary's age is correctly given then she was about 48 years of age when she married Jason Huntley in 1812 so they probably had no children.

In the War of 1812 Jason Huntley served as a Pvt. in a Flank Company of the Addington Militia. He was called of the Midland District 17 May, 1850 when he was evidently granted land by Certificate #5671. [National Archives of Canada—Upper Canada Land Records RG1, L1 Vol. 44:577—reel C-108]

By 1850 the Midland District apparently comprised Lennox, Addington and Frontenac Counties in Ontario Province.

There are two references for Jason Huntley's marriage to widow Mary Walker. In Vol. I of the Ontario (Canada) History he is called John Huntley. In a recent search of the original registers his name has been found to be Jason Huntley. [National Archives of Canada—Marriage Registers MG 9, D7 - 56]

Children all born Lyme, Conn.:

4. i. John, b. 24 Nov., 1677

ii. Elizabeth, b. 16 March, 1679. She is called the wife of Mathew Beckwith, deceased in her father's Will in 1741.

Aaron was baptized in the First Church of Roxbury, Mass. 27 Oct., 1657. He, with other soldiers from Lyme, served in King Philip's War and was given one whole soldier's right [Cedar Swamp Lot No. 50] in the Town of Voluntown, Conn. which he sold to Joseph Lathrop of Norwich, Conn. for £8 5 Nov., 1716. [Voluntown Deed Bk. 1] Aaron lived upon his father's "home lott" which he deeded to his son, David, "with my now dwelling house, orchard and meadow, bounded westerly by the highway [Lyme Street], northwardly by lands of Josiah DeWolf, eastwardly by the commons and southerly by land and meadow of Mr. Moses Noyes". [Lyme 4:119] This deed made 3 Feb., 1723 provided for both Aaron and his wife, Mary, during their lifetimes and for payments to some of his grandchildren. Aaron Huntley served as Constable in Lyme for many years and also held other elective offices, being at various times fence viewer, lister, poundkeeper, packer (of beef & pork), and surveyor. He was one of the collectors of the minister's rate, elected 26 Dec., 1700.

There are several transactions between Aaron Huntley and other parties in Lyme in regard to the sale of horses which are recorded in the Town Land Records: "Robert Perego hath sold a bay mare with star on the forehead, marked with his own ear mark, being 4 year old and vantage to Aaron Huntly. This above said mare is returned to Robert Peregos and the bargain is null and void, agreed to by both parties this 1 March, 1680/81". [Lyme, Conn. 1:36] At another time Aaron bought a dun-colored colt about 6 weeks old with a white blaze on the forehead from John Borden.

Aaron Huntley wrote his Will in Lyme 25 Jan., 1741 but did not die until 25 May, 1745 at the good age of 91. Aaron was evidently quite fond of his granddaughter, Lydia or "Ledy", daughter of his son, David, as she was named his executor.

Since David Huntley, Aaron's son, had died in 1738 he could not very well pay Mary Lattemore five shillings so Aaron must have desired his Grandson, David, Jr., to pay this legacy.

Aaron's "daughter", Ruth, apparently is the widow of Aaron's son, Solomon Huntley, deceased. Both Aaron and Ruth Huntley witnessed a deed from Abigail Champion to Joshua Champion—2 Nov., 1719. [Lyme, Conn. 3:246]

The original "home lott" of John Huntley was willed to his son, Aaron and also half an acre of land in the "new lott" joyning to the orchard fence on one side and the front fence on the other side, to set him a house upon.

This, Aaron Huntley apparently proceeded to do. However, as old age approached, Aaron, making provisions for himself and wife, deeded his house and home lott to his son David 3 Feb., 1723. [Lyme, Conn. 4:119]

David Huntley died in Lyme 27 July, 1738 and his son, David Huntley, Jr., as executor of his father's estate, sold to Lewis DeWolf on 17 July, 1739 for four hundred pounds a certain parcel of upland and salt-marsh situate, lying and being in ye Town of Lyme with a "mansion-house" standing thereon, bounded westerly on ye highway [Lyme St.], northerly on Josiah DeWolf's land, southerly on Mr. Noyes' land and easterly partly on Josiah DeWolf's land partly on Benjamin DeWolf's land.

Aaron Huntley also gave a deed to Lewis DeWolf 25 July, 1739 for 12 pounds "ye one-half of all my right, claim and demand unto my dwelling house and home lott being by estimation 48 acres more or less." [Lyme, Conn. 7:77 & 78]

Soon thereafter Lewis Dewolf sold to Capt. Elisha Sheldon, shopkeeper, for seven hundred pounds a tract of land and meadow in Lyme with a house and barn thereon which land contains by

The following description of the old house is taken from Harper's Magazine, Vol. 52, No. 309—page 318. Feb., 1876. "Turning north from the Waite mansion you are confronted by a quaint homestead which seems to be taking life comfortably right in the middle of "The Street". Venerable trees rise above it and their branches droop over its small-paned windows. Its door-step is foot-worn, its hall of entrance of a pre-Revolutionary pattern and its whole architecture onesided; but it has an unmistakable air of gentility. If you enter you are plunged headlong into an antiquarian mine, panelled walls, curious cornices, enormous fire-places, high-mantels and round tables bring all your forefathers and foremothers round you in their powdered wigs and high-heeled shoes. The chairs and pictures are many of them two hundred years old. You may presume before you get to it that "The Street" ends plump against the little door-yard fence. No, The Street is guilty of no such impertinence. It dodges politely around the edifice and pursues its otherwise unbending course as if accustomed to trifling obstructions."

In 1977, Lyme Street or "The Street" still has a definite jog where it dodges politely around the Phoebe Griffin Noyes Library which stands today upon the former site of the Huntley-DeWolf-Sheldon-Marvin-Lord House.

Daniel Huntley lived in Lyme probably on the west side of Four Mile River on the 22½ acres more or less which his father, Aaron, had deeded to him 20 Jan., 1702/3. Daniel made his Will 12 Jan., 1732/3 giving to his 1st son, Daniel, the farm and dwelling house; to his 2nd son, Jacob, he gave the land in Colchester which came to him from his wife, Hannah. Hannah deeded this land (14 acres) to Jacob Huntley, 24 Feb., 1734/5. [Colchester, Conn. 5:165] Daniel also made bequests to his 3rd son, James and to his 4th son, Amos. Proof of death of Hannah is found in a deed from her son, Daniel Huntley of Lyme, to his brother, Jacob Huntley of Sturbridge, Mass., dated 25 Dec., 1745. viii. Simon, bapt. 25 Dec., 1736; d. Lyme, Conn. 1 Oct., 1743. [Lyme 1st Cong. Church record]

David Huntley received from his father, Aaron, for love, goodwill etc., Aaron's now dwelling house and 48 acres more or less providing that David keep him and wife during their remaining years. This property, fronting on Lyme Street in the present village of Old Lyme, was the "home lott" of John Huntley, the Immigrant.

Widow Joanna Huntley declined to administer the estate of David Huntley, 12 Sept., 1738. [New London, Conn. Probate Journal 4:56] Administration was granted to the eldest son, David. 9 Jan., 1738/9 Elijah Huntley, son of Mr. David Huntley of Lyme, deceased, a minor upwards of 14 years, chose Lt. Reinold Marvin of Lyme to be his guardian. 2 March, 1738/9 the Probate Court appointed David Huntley of Lyme to be guardian unto Jonathan, Ezekiel, Simon and Mary Huntley of Lyme, minors under 14 years of age, being the children of Mr. David Huntley, late of Lyme, deceased. 30 Oct., 1739, Elisha Huntley of Lyme, a minor upwards of the age of 14, son of Mr. David Huntley of Lyme, lately deceased, made choice of Mr. Benjamin Peck of Lyme to be his guardian.

8. Solomon Huntley (Aaron, John) born in Lyme, Conn. 31 May, 1691; died in Lyme 9 August, 1712. He married in Lyme, 13 Feb., 1710/11, Ruth _____, whose surname was not recorded, however she appears to be Ruth Merrow who was born in Reading, Mass. 5 April, 1693 daughter of Henry and Miriam (Brooks) Merrow. Widow Ruth Huntley probably married (2) Joseph Brown of Colchester and Lyme, Conn.

Only child:

i. Mary, b. in Lyme Feb., 1712; d. apparently in Lyme in 1766. She m. in New London, Conn. 17 June, 1731, Robert Latimore/Latimer who was bapt. at New London, Conn. 15 Oct., 1693 son of Capt. Robert & Elizabeth (Dimond) Latimore. He apparently d. at Sackville, Nova Scotia before 6 Dec., 1766.
Children (surname LATIMORE/LATIMER):

1. Robert, b. ca. 1731; d. before Dec., 1771 leaving a minor son, Robert.
2. Deming who m. Ann/Anne Johnson daughter of John Johnson of Lyme. Deming d. before 12 June, 1771 leaving a minor daughter, Mary.
3. Lemuel who is listed in the Census of Sackville, N. S. in 1770. He is called the only surviving brother in the distribution of the estate of Reuben Latimer of Lyme, 17 Dec., 1771.
4. Reuben who d. before 17 Dec., 1771 without issue.

Proof that Solomon Huntley married Ruth Merrow is lacking, however, Henry Merrow attended Solomon Huntley's wedding.

Mrs. Ruth Huntley also testified in the case, Henry Merrow vs Thomas Bradford. [New London County Court Files—Nov., 1713]

Mr. Benjamin Chamberlain and Mr. Henry Merrow both testified in a complaint which Aaron Huntley made 14 Feb., 1710/11 against John Tillotson, David Tillotson and Jonathan Brockway, all of Lyme, who appeared at the wedding trying to get into the house and breaking an hinge on Aaron's door. The three threatened to "whip David Huntley" and "tan the shins of Mr. Merrow". Aaron Huntley won the case and recovered costs. [New London County Court Files—14 Feb., 1710/11]

That widow Ruth Huntley married (2) a Brown is proved by a deed from Jonathan Huntley No. 23 to James Huntley, 3 May, 1749. [Lyme 8:422] By this deed Jonathan "do binde myself & my heirs to warrant, secure & defend (etc.) to said James Huntley (etc.) except against the claims of my honoured Uncle John Huntley and his heirs, my Aunt Ruth Brown and her heirs and the heirs of Daniel Huntley, Aaron Huntley, deceased and Mary, the wife of Robert Latimore and her heirs".

Solomon Huntley's brother, Daniel, married Hannah Brown of Colchester, Conn. Hannah had a brother, Joseph Brown, born ca. 1693, who married Ruth whose identity has not been proved. This Joseph Brown lived in Lyme, Conn. and in Goshen, Colony of New York. 16 Sept., 1773 Joseph Brown, late of Goshen, Colony of New York but now residing in Lyme gave a deed to his son, Samuel Brown. [Lyme 13:158]

H. D.:236 "Thur. fair 17 June, 1731 Robert Latimer married to _____ Huntley".

9. John Huntley (John, Aaron, John) born in Lyme, Conn. 19 Oct., 1699; died in Lyme 25 May, 1728. He married in Lyme, Lydia Robbins, born in Lyme 9 Oct., 1703; died in Lyme 22 April, 1728 daughter of Joseph & Sarah (Waterhouse) Robbins.

Only child born in Lyme, Conn.:

i. Hezekiah, b. 13 Feb., 1725; d. after 22 July, 1729.

John Huntley of Lyme, administrator of the estate of his son, John Huntley, Jr. mentions "subsisting the only child, Hezekiah" and was appointed guardian of the said Hezekiah, 22 July, 1729. [New London Probate Court Journal 3:90]

The estate of John Huntley, Jr. amounting to £163 consisting of an house, well and lot land, 42 acres and small orchard was sold to his brother, Joseph Huntley No. 11.

The Lyme, Conn. Record Book for Ear Marks of cattle, etc. has the following entries: "Hezekiah Huntley son of John Huntley, being the 3d, his mark (ear mark) is that which was his fathers-18 June, 1731". Also—"Lois Beckwith, daughter of Mathew Beckwith, her ear mark is that which was Hezekiah Huntley's, deceased—entered 16 Sept., 1746". This last entry proves that Hezekiah Huntley died before 16 Sept., 1746.

10. Peter Huntley (John, Aaron, John) born in Lyme, Conn. 4 March, 1705; died in Lyme in 1783. He married (1) in Colchester, Conn. 7 Jan., 1729, Mary Ransom, born Lyme, Conn. 13 May, 1709; died in Lyme 5 July, 1732 daughter of Joseph and Jane Ransom. [Lyme 1st Cong. Church record] He married (2) in Lyme, Conn. 14 Feb., 1732/3, Sarah Robbins, born in Lyme, Conn. 10 March, 1709; died in Lyme in 1783 daughter of Joseph and Sarah (Waterhouse) Robbins.

iii. Lois, b. 26 Feb., 1733

iv. Sarah, b. 1 May, 1736

25. v. Ezra, b. 4 October, 1738; family record says 15 Oct.

vi. Hannah, b. 4 August, 174_

26. vii. Jasper, b. 4 Sept., 1749

Jasper Huntley was appointed administrator on the estate of Peter Huntley, late of Lyme, deceased, on 14 Oct., 1783 and with Elisha Bogue was appointed administrator on the estate of widow Sarah Huntley, the same date. [New London, Conn. Probate Court Journal 6A:26,30,32] Jasper Huntley was also appointed administrator of the estate of Hannah Huntley at the same Probate Court held in New London, Conn. 14 Oct., 1783 but I believe this to be an error since there is no inventory or further proceedings in regard to Hannah Huntley's estate.

It is possible that Hannah Huntley married Amos Story and is the Hannah Huntley Story who witnessed a deed from Charles Bulless to Henry Bulless 25 April, 1770 in Manchester, Vt. [Manchester, Vt. 1:404] Note that Hannah's brother, Jasper Huntley owned land in Manchester, Vt. although he apparently never lived there. Hannah Story also witnessed the deed of Jonathan Buell to Asa Huntley, formerly of Manchester, Vt., at Salisbury, Vt. 24 May, 1794. [Salisbury, Vt. 2:50] Amos Story was the first settler in Salisbury, Vt. but was killed by a falling tree before his family moved there. The widow Story with 8 or 10 small children were the first family in the town of James Huntley served in the American Revolution as Captain of a militia company in Lt. Col. Experience Storr's Conn. Regt. stationed at New York in the Fall of 1776. He wrote his Will in Exeter, Otsego Co., N. Y. 7 Feb., 1809 but returned to Lyme where he owned a large estate. By his Will all his lands in Lyme were left to his sons, Elkanah and Silas. This property known as "Huntley Hollow" was sold about 1907 to Morton F. Plant, a millionaire, who used it as an hunting reserve. It is now owned by the State of Connecticut and used by the National Guard. The old Huntley house was torn down between 1960 and 1970.

Capt. James Huntley was a member of the committee in Lyme to provide supplies for the soldiers in 1777 and on the committee to pay soldiers in 1778. He served in the Conn. Legislature from Lyme in 1793.

The Baptist Church of Lyme appointed Deacon James Huntley 5 Jan., 1782 to act as agent on its behalf to receive a certain legacy given to the church by Capt. Elisha Miller in his last Will & Testament. The "Elisha Miller Fund" is still in existence.

The Town of Lyme, Conn. paid James Huntley Sept. 17, 1798 $1.80 for 3¼ yards of cloth & for making a coat for Bartemas Towzer. Baptist Church records reveal that 11 Jan., 1771 charges were brought against James Huntley that he was guilty of breaking the 4th Commandment "laboring in his field ataking up his flax with his youths (sons)". He pleaded guilty and promised to make public confession which he did. 18 Jan., 1771 James' wife, Lucretia, was baptized.

Ezra Huntley removed to Charlotte Precinct, Dutchess County, New York perhaps soon after his marriage in 1759 since there are no vital records for his children in Lyme, Conn. records. He relinquished to his brother, Jasper Huntley, his rights in Peter Huntley's lands near Four Mile River Bridge in Lyme, 23 May, 1767. [Lyme, Conn. 12:77] For information on the Robins/Robbins family see "John Robins of Branford & Lyme" by Janis H. Miller, Washington, D. C., 1966.

The family record of Ezra Huntley is contained in the papers which Mary (Huntley) Demass presented in her claim for a widow's pension 16 Jan., 1841.

Included in this family record are two persons whose relationship is unknown. "Christina Bankson was born July 4th, 1814". "Christina Bankson came hear October 23th, 1823". Also, "Electa Barns was born January 7th, 1819". "Died coming away here August 16th, 1830".

By her marriage to Nathan Green, Mrs. Phebe (Robbins) Huntley had a daughter, Huldah Green, who married Timothy Goodfellow of Manlius, N. Y. (1777-1847). Mrs. Huldah Goodfellow died in 1870 aged 82 years.

John Huntley removed from Lyme, Conn. to Charlotte Precinct, Dutchess County, New York soon after 1761 and is on the Tax List in Dutchess Co. from Feb., 1763 to June, 1767. The Journal or Letters of Timothy Rogers, Jr. who was born in Lyme, Conn. in 1756 state that "And as my fortune was to be put out (apprenticed), I lived among other people till I was six years old and as they told me, I was used very hard. Then one of my mother's brothers, John Huntley by name, moved about 150 miles (from Lyme) to Nine Partners in the government of New York and as he came to down to where I was put out to one (omitted) hearing that I was abused, came and took me away and took me home to Nine Partners (Dutchess Co.) where he had begun a new farm but being poor and having a great family (he) put me out a spell to a Baptist minister where I lived a little more than a year, then took me home a spell. The consumption came into the family of my Uncle and he and two of his daughters died with it about the time that I was fourteen years old". Timothy Rogers, Jr. was actually about 12 years old at the time of his Uncle John Huntley's death but his Journal was begun in 1795 after an earlier one had been destroyed by fire so was compiled by memory.

The Will of John Huntley can be found in [New York City Surrogate's Records Bk. 27, new page 114, probated 25 Nov., 1768.]

Regt. from 8 May to 7 Dec., 1775 when he apparently deserted. He lived at Frederickstown, Dutchess Co., N. Y. in the Federal Census of 1790. Joseph's second wife, Eleanor, was head of the household at Fishkill, Dutchess Co., N. Y. with three young females in the Census of 1800. Joseph Huntley had gone back to Lyme for in the year 1806 the Selectmen of Lyme attempted to prevent him from obtaining possession of the estate of his mother, now the widow of Jacob Sullard, saying that he had deserted his wife and children in New York State.

Joseph Huntley of Lyme, Conn. bought land in the Town of Groton, Conn. from Nathaniel Hewitt, 20 March, 1807. The same day he mortgaged this property in Groton to Eusebius Dodge of Lyme provided that "If the said Joseph Huntley do well and truly pay the sd. Dodge the sum of $20 and also save sd. Dodge's family from a certain bond that sd. Dodge has this day given with me to the Selectmen of Lyme for the maintenance of the widow Eunice Sullard during her life and all other costs on her account and pay the interest on sd. $20 by the day of the death of the sd. Benjamin Huntley of Manchester in the County of Charlotte in New York quitclaimed his rights in the estate of his mother, Ruth, widow of Samuel and daughter of Aaron Huntley—8 Dec., 1774. [Lyme, Conn. 15:6] Benjamin Huntley (then) of Lempster, Co. of Cheshire, Prov. of New Hampshire for £25 sells to Eber Lewis of Marlow, N. H.—1 whole right or share of land in the Township of Lempster, aforesaid, 50 acres whereof is already laid out and is Lot #20 at the south end of Lempster; it being the lot on which I now live, which right or share of land originally belonged to John Church as a grantee—4 Jan., 1773. [Cheshire Co., N. H. 4:210] Benjamin Huntley signed this deed at Walpole, N. H.; one of the witnesses being the widow Lois Huntley of Marlow, N. H. perhaps widow of John Huntley No. 27. In another deed, Benjamin Huntley (now) of Harwick, County of Rutland, State of Vermont conveys to Capt. Edward Chapman all "my right in my brother Solomon's right in the estate of my honored father, Mr. Samuel Huntley, late of Lyme, deceased and my right in my sister, Ruth Huntley's right in sd. estate"—3 Feb., 1784. [Lyme, Conn. 16:261] This deed proves that Benjamin's brother, Solomon and sister, Ruth, had died before 3 Feb., 1784 because neither had conveyed their right to Benjamin Huntley by deed.

A petition of Benjamin Huntley is on file in the National Archives in Ottawa, Canada showing that he had removed into the Province of Ontario, Canada by 1789, however he is listed at Middlebury, Addison Co.. Vt. in the Federal Census of 1790.

"To his Excellency, the Governor in Council—The petition of Benjamin Huntley, late from the State of Vermont, now residing in Elizabethtown (Brockville) in the District of Luneburg: Humbly Sheweth—That your petitioner has neither served King nor Congress during the late War but has removed from Vermont and resided in this District since May last and is desirous to be admitted as an inhabitant in said district and therefor prays for the grant of such portion of land as is now allowed to new settlers, for which, as in duty bound, your petitioner shall ever pray".

Dated at Augusta—29 Oct., 1789 (signed)benjamin Huntly (sic)

He was granted 200 acres the next day, 30 Oct., 1789. [National Archives of Canada Land Petitions [RG 1, L1]—H Misc/179]

Benjamin Huntley may not have served either King or Congress but he certainly served from Vermont in the Revolution as he enlisted 21 Jan., 1778 in Capt. Gideon Bronson's Co. in Gen. Benedict Arnold's Regt. at Montreal and served until 26 Feb., 1778. He also served with his son, Duran Huntley, in Ethan Allen's "Green Mountain Boys".

30. Samuel Huntley (Samuel, John, Aaron, John) born in Lyme, Conn. 11 March, 1747; probably died near Crown Point, New York about 1806. He married in Lyme 7 Oct., 1767, Susannah Huntley, daughter of Daniel Huntley No. 16. He married (2) Lempster, N. H. 18 March, 1787, Ruth Brown who has not been identified.

91. iii. probably John, b. ca. 1770-75
92. iv. Benjamin, b. Bennington, Vt. 17 May, 1780

Children by Ruth:

93. v. Samuel H., b. Essex, Vt. 15 March, 1794
vi. probably Lucinda who m. Leicester, Vt. 9 March, 1806, Samuel Garfield viii. probably Marilla who m. 2 August, 1820, Elam Clark.

Letters of Administration were issued 10 March, 1806 by the Surrogate's Court, Essex Co., N. Y. to James Morrow on the estate of Samuel Huntley, late of Crown Point, who died leaving goods & chattels in the State. [Essex Co., N. Y. A: 20] His heirs are not mentioned and Essex County Deeds show that he owned no real estate in that county.

Samuel Huntley evidently removed to Lempster, N. H. with his brother, Benjamin, soon after 1775. Samuel Huntley of Lempster, Yeoman, for £90 received from Thomas Scovel, Jr. of Lempster, sells him an hundred-acre lot—the 55th "lott" in the 2nd Division—5 June, 1778. [Cheshire Co., N. H. 4:311]

While still in Lyme, Conn. Samuel Huntley served in the Am. Revolution from 9 May to 7 July, 1775 in Capt. Edward Mott's 7th Co., Col. Parson's 6th Conn. Regt. After removing to New Hampshire he served in the Northern Dept. under Gen. Schuyler. "Samuel Huntley on pay-roll for Capt. Jason Wait's Co.—£4.15.00—Feb., 1776". [N. H. Provincial, State & Town Papers, Vol. 14, Rev. Rolls: 265]

Contrary to previous assertions Luman Huntley did not serve as a soldier in the American Revolution. He is not mentioned in Mass. or New Hampshire rolls. The family of Luman has been difficult to build because of lack of vital and probate records. Luman Huntley removed from Marlow to Charlestown, N. H. in Sullivan County where some of the early records were destroyed by fire.

Luman Huntley and Timothy Holden sold to Jonathan Glidden of Unity, N. H. for $666 two lots in Unity—13 Nov., 1807. [Cheshire Co., N. H. 52:254]

Rev. Eleazer Beckwith of Marlow, N. H. died in April, 1808 and his Will unaccountably names a daughter, Merriam Huntley and a daughter Renea (sic) Royce. If this Will is correct then Luman married (1) Merriam/Miriam Beckwith and (2) Lorena/Renea (Beckwith) Royce. Widow Lorena Huntley claimed dower rights in Luman's estate 16 August, 1838.

Elisha Huntley served in the American Revolution as a Pvt. in Capt. Samuel Canfield's Co., Col. Bellow's Regt. in June, 1777 to reinforce the garrison at Ticonderoga. He also saw six months service in 1780 probably in Capt. Cherry's Co., Col. Reed's Regt. Elisha applied for a soldier's pension 30 August, 1832 aged 71 years. Clarissa applied for a widow's pension 18 Sept., 1838.

Hon. Elisha Huntley was an energetic and prominent man in Marlow, holding such offices as Postmaster, Justice of the Peace, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Judge of the Circuit Court and Judge of the Court of Sessions. He was also active in the Militia holding the rank of 1st Major, 16th N. H. Regt. until 1801, Commander of that Regt. until 1802 when he became Brig.-General of the N. H. 5th Division.

Elisha Huntley was also Moderator of the Marlow Town Meetings for many years, Selectman for 14 years and Representative in the N. H. Legislature from 1808 to 1821.

In 1790 Elisha built a large home on Marlow Hill in which he lived and conducted an "hostelry" and in which church services were often held until the erection of a "meeting-house" on an acre of ground which he donated for that purpose and "not in other ways." This meeting-house stood across the road from his farm buildings until 1845 when it was taken down and rebuilt on the "Plains" in the present Village of Marlow (1976) and is now known as Jones Hall.

44. Daniel Huntley (Daniel, Daniel, Aaron, John) born in Lyme, Conn. 13 Oct., 1748; died Horton, Kings Co., Nova Scotia prior to 7 June, 1803. Daniel married (2) 9 August, 1780 Betsey Wickwire, born aboard ship in the harbor at Horton, Sunday 7 June, 1760 daughter of Peter and Rhoda (Schofield) Wickwire of Montville, Conn. and Horton, N. S. Administration on the estate of Daniel Huntley, Jr. was granted to his widow, Elizabeth and to his son, Dan (sic), on the 7th of June, 1803. The appraisal of his lands amounted to £403.10.

The following charges were made against his estate:

"Keeping Asa: 5 years & 7 months
Keeping Charlotte: 6 years & 5 months
Twelve years at 9/6: 109/4"

With the exception of Peter Huntley, the other heirs of Daniel Huntley, Jr. deeded their interests in the estate to their brother, Daniel Huntley, for £31—10 Nov., 1816. [Cornwallis, N. S. 5:539]

Among the heirs of Daniel Huntley, Jr. mentioned in the 1816 deed was Prudence Huntley, spinster, about whom some question has been raised. it is possible that she is an unrecorded child of Daniel's first wife, Sarah, but she could be the twin daughter, Betsey, previously believed to have died young. Possibly she used "Prudence" to avoid the difficulties arising from having the same given name as her mother, Betsey or Elizabeth.

45. Jason Huntley (Daniel, Daniel, Aaron, John) born in Lyme, Conn. 4 May, 1761; died probably Bass Creek, N. S. in May, 1846. He married Horton, N. S. 15 Jan., 1801, Nancy Grogan who has not been identified. Her death date is unknown.

Daniel and Susanna Huntley conveyed on 4 Feb., 1791 a lot of dyke given to Susanna in lieu of dower in consideration of "thirty pounds from the hands of our son, Jason, by his being with us to labor with and for us, to help support us from his arrival to the age of 21 years, till now and engages so to continue to do to lives end of both of us, if we continue with him or if we or either of us see cause to go to New England, to help us away and to receive us at our return". [Cornwallis, N. S. 3:379] Jason Huntley bought for £110, the 22nd of Sept., 1797, from Daniel Harris, 180 acres in Cornwallis "near a place called Bass Creek, running into Minas Basin". [Cornwallis, N. S. 3:253] On this land Jason Huntley apparently lived, brought up his family and died. He is buried in the Habitant Cemetery, Medford, Nova Scotia.

46. Jacob Huntley (Jacob, Daniel, Aaron, John) born Sturbridge, Mass. 12 March, 1745; died date and place unknown. The name of his wife is not known.
Probable children:

141. i. Jacob, b. 1 Jan., 1773; m. Abigail Buker.
ii. Chloe, b. 20 July, 1775

Other Huntley family historians concluded that this Jacob Huntley is the man who married Abigail Buker daughter of Zebulon and Deborah (Randall) Buker of Pembroke, Mass., however, the Census of 1800 of Bakersfield, Vermont shows that Jacob Huntley was in the age bracket 26 to 45 years old so was born between 1755 and 1774, so probably the Jacob Huntley No. 141, who did marry Abigail Buker. The birth records of Jacob and Chloe Huntley are recorded in a Pease Family Bible. The data from this Bible were placed in the Bible Records in the Connecticut State Library in 1943 by Mrs. Olive A. Robertson of Hartford, Conn. I believe that Jacob and Chloe are the children of Jacob Huntley No. 46. Their mother may have been a Pease.

47. Amos Huntley (Jacob, Daniel, Aaron, John) born in Sturbridge, Mass. 23 Sept. 1747; died Pierpont, Ohio 16 May, 1828. He married Lois Cook born ca. 1751; died Pierpont 24 March, 1835 aged 83 years, perhaps daughter of Daniel Cook of Tolland, Conn.

xiv. Sybil, b. ; m. Ashtabula Co., Ohio 1 Nov., 1832 John Hoskins.

Amos Huntley served in the American Revolution during the Lexington Alarm from East Windsor, Conn. under Capt. Amasa Loomis. Unfortunately his service has been attributed to his Uncle Amos Huntley No. 19 of Lyme, Conn.

In 1811 Amos sold his holdings in Washington, Mass. and removed to the Town of Denmark, Ashtabula County, Ohio where he purchased Lot No. 22 from the State of Connecticut—12 April, 1812. [Ashtabula Co., Ohio Deed Bk. A]

The Town of Pierpont was erected from the Town of Denmark and the first election in the new town took place in the home of Amos Huntley 18 June, 1818. The first schoolhouse in the Town was erected about 1814 and the first term was taught by Amos Huntley's daughter, Lucy, then only 15 years old.

Amos Huntley and wife, Lois, are buried in the Sam Brown Cemetery which is about 3 miles southeast of Pierpont, Ohio.

Phineas Huntley bought some 500 acres of land in Exeter, Otsego Co., N. Y. from James Farr in 1796 but he did not as some assert move there immediately. 17 Sept., 1798 the Town of Lyme paid Phineas $6.09 for 9 days work on Meetinghouse Hill Road in Lyme. Elkanah Huntley bought from Ruhamah Huntley for $600 a piece of land in the First Society being the undivided one-half of the farm on which Phineas Huntley now lives and is the same land which Phineas Huntley deeded to me 5 Jan., last—9 March, 1803. [Lyme, Conn. 22:235] Soon after the date of this deed, 9 March, 1803, Phineas and family removed to the Town of Exeter, Otsego Co., N. Y. where his eldest son, Elisha, died 11 June, 1803.

Phineas Huntley's Will was admitted to Probate in the Surrogate Court, Otsego Co., N. Y. 16 Oct., 1820. He left to his wife, Ruhamah, "my farm in Burlington (Twp.) which I purchased of Benj. Harrington". To his son, Calvin, Phineas left "my home farm—except for 120 acres to be cut off for his two sons: Albert Phineas and Calvin". He left a farm in Burlington to his daughter, Betsey Marsh and to her sons: Elisha, Ely, Jacob and Ira Marsh. To his daughter, Ruhamah Peck and her son, Calvin Peck etc. he left a farm in Burlington. A farm in Plainfield (Twp.) was given to his daughter, Lucretia Mattison and her son, Abner T. Mattison. [Otsego Co., N. Y. Surrogate Court Wills F:55]

Ruhamah (Tiffany) Huntley was known as quite a match-maker as she arranged a party of young people to introduce her brother-in-law, James Huntley, Jr. to his future wife, Lydia Caulkins. She was also known as a smart business-woman.

Reynold Huntley served in the American Revolution in Capt. Bushnell's Co., Col. John Ely's Regt. and was in the Battle of White Plains. His application for a soldier's pension was rejected in 1833 as he had not served a sufficient length of time. Reynold moved to Manlius, N. Y. about 1807.

Lyme, Conn. Deeds show that Reynold bought and sold a great deal of land in Lyme and his affairs were often insolvent as shown by suits brought against him for unpaid debts. The Town of Lyme, Conn. paid Constable Allen Smith $4 in April, 1801 "for arresting Reynold Huntley and Cesar, a negro, for summoning witnesses, levying & committing Reyd Huntley to goal (jail)".

Reynold Huntley and family belonged to the First Baptist Church in Lyme, Conn. Records show that his first wife, Jerusha, was "received back 1 Jan., 1780". His second wife, Esther Huntley, was baptized 1 May, 1790. Reynold, himself, was excommunicated 25 Oct., 1799.

Ira Huntley is listed in the Census of 1800 in Duanesburg, Schenectady Co., N. Y. but removed shortly to Manlius, Onondaga Co., N. Y. where he bought Lot No. 54 from Luther Bingham. His Will written 18 August, 1814 was proved 19 Oct., 1814 names his wife, Polly and bequeaths property to his eldest son, Ira, Jr.and then at his decease to Ira, Jr.'s oldest son, Enoch, two shares and to the others one share. To his second son, Enoch, Ira left $5 and to his third son, Lee, $5. To his fourth son, James, after his discharge from the U. S. Army, he left one-third of a farm in Cicero, N. Y. He also left bequests to his daughter, Lucretia, wife of Fredrick Lasher. Ira also made a bequest to his daughter-in-law, Nancy, wife of his son, Lee, which was then to go to their daughter, Sabrina. To his grandson, James Lasher, youngest son of Frederick Lasher, Ira gave a note which he held against James' father. Contrary to prior assertions Ira Huntley's wife, Polly Lee, was not the daughter of Jason and Abiah (Brown) Lee of Lyme, Conn. as Jason Lee's Will dated 13 Jan., 1810 names his daughter, Polly, wife of Capt. Thomas Way. Capt. Thomas Way, Jr. married Miss Polly Lee 11 Oct., 1787. [Lyme, Conn. 2:6]

In the early 1800s Connecticut's Western Reserve sometimes called New Connecticut, beckoned as the "land of opportunity" to people in Lyme, Conn. where the population was booming and land had become scarce. In the Fall of 1810 a committee of two, Mr. Samuel G. Peck and Duran Way set out for Ohio to inspect the land in Lebanon Township, later renamed New Lyme Twp., in Ashtabula County, Ohio. Their report provided the "spark" which inspired Dan Peck, Zopher Gee, Dan Huntley, Lemuel Lee, Joseph Miller, (Peregrine) Perry G. Beckwith, Peter Chapman and Joshua Strickland and others to exchange or sell their lands & property in Lyme for the new land in Lebanon Township, Ohio. In the Spring of 1811 Dan Huntley and wife & child, Perry G. Beckwith and family, with Peter Chapman a single man, set out from Lyme in horse-drawn wagons for the west, arriving some five weeks later in June, 1811. The Township of Lebanon, organized the first Monday of April, 1813 became the Township of New Lyme in 1825. Dan Huntley became one of the three trustees of the new Town and his son-in-law, Joseph Miller, the first Town Clerk. Dan Huntley built the first frame-house in Lebanon in 1820. This man is without doubt the Andrew Huntley who served in the American Revolution as a Pvt. in Capt. Christopher Webber's Co., Col. David Hobart's N. H. Regt., Gen. John Stark's Brigade and fought in the Battle of Bennington 16 August, 1777. He enlisted 21 July, 1777 and was discharged 22 Sept., 1777. Andrew Huntley also served in Capt. Page's Co. as a Pvt. from 6 July to 12 Sept., 1780 for which time & travel he was paid $60.18.

Andrew Huntley witnessed a deed from Asa and Lydia Huntley of Marlow, N. H. to Abisha Tubbs—21 March, 1777. [Cheshire Co., N. H. 28:504/5] Andrew bought from Richard Otis for £30 fifty acres of land in Marlow, N. H. belonging to Jared Spencer's grant—March, 1778. [Cheshire Co., N. H. 5:288] Two years later Andrew Huntley sold the same property at the same price to Reed Woodworth of Marlow—20 Nov., 1780. [Cheshire Co., N. He purchased of John Jones for £40 twenty acres in Manchester, Vt. and later for £10 an additional 2½ acres—7 August, 1783. [Manchester, Vt. 1:403 & 407] Andrew sold his farm "on the road to Bromley" of 22½ acres in two pieces to Dan Allen—22 July, 1786. [Manchester, Vt. 2:89] Probably at this time Andrew removed to the Town of Westfield, Washington Co., N. Y. where he is listed in the Census of 1790 and 1800. While here he purchased 43½ acres of land from Jeremiah & Grace Briggs—14 Dec., 1799. [Washington Co., N. Y. D:247] Andrew purchased land in Middlebury, then in Genesee Co. but now in Wyoming Co., N. Y. from Levi Kellogg presumably his son-in-law—6 June, 1816. [Genesee Co. N. Y. 9:133] Andrew wrote his Will in Middlebury, Genesee Co. in N. Soon after 1810 he removed to Canada where he lived in Elizabethtown now Brockville and in Lansdowne, Leeds County, Ontario. About 1844 Zadock moved to Clayton, Jefferson Co., N. Y. Benjamin Colton of Woodbury, Conn. who obtained a pension for Zadock, stated that Zadock Huntley lived in an howling wilderness about 40 miles from Watertown, N. Y. and that he had raised a large family of children. It seems quite evident that Zadock was married and had children before marrying Elizabeth Balis in 1798 as the Census of 1800 lists 1 son under 10, 4 daughters under 10 and 1 daughter between 10 and 16. Lack of vital records, deeds etc. have prevented positive identification of Zadock's children. His Will which was filed in the Surrogate's Court in Watertown, Jefferson Co., N. Y. is listed as missing and evidently was never recorded in the Will books. Zadock's pension certificate was issued after his death and sent to Benjamin Colton, payable to widow Elizabeth Huntley.

Ezra Huntley of Stonington in New London County, Rufus Huntley of Lyme, Naomi Huntley and Lois Sanford of Saybrook in the Co. of Middlesex, Conn. sold for $666.67 to Richard McCurdy of Lyme seven-eights of one certain piece of land lying in the 1st Society (Old Lyme) about 19 acres, being the same land released by Samuel Mather to Ezra Huntley etc. by deed dated 17 Sept., 1803. The other one-eighth part of said land belongs to Asher Huntley of Bristol, N. Y.—14 Jan., 1804. All parties signed this deed in Saybrook, Conn. [Lyme, Conn. 21:346] Ezra Huntley was evidently a striking figure when decked out for church or town meeting as among his personal belongings shown by his widow to Mr. Stephen Avery and Mr. Elias Hewitt who inventoried Ezra's estate, were 1 castor hat, 1 India-brown great coat, 1 bottle-green surtout, 1 black broadcloth closecoat, 1 yellow-striped vest, 1 pair of white-colored velvet pantaloons, 1 pair flannel pantaloons with red stripes, cotton and cambrick shirts, 1 bandanna and calf-skin boots. He also carried a red morocco pocketbook and had something to carry in it as he left two silver dollars in specie and $15 in bank bills. Among his other belongings were a patented shearing-machine, 22 lbs. of shoe leather, two weaver's looms with equipment. That Ezra was quite a wealthy man for the period is evidenced by the many notes of hand which he held against important people in North Stonington. Mrs. Eunice Huntley's brother-in-law, Ezekiel Huntley of Bozrah, Conn. sold to her for $200 "all and every part of my clothier-works in Bozrah with all the clothier tools thereunto belonging"—6 Feb., 1818. The quilt was cut in halves many years ago probably in Wisconsin by the heirs of Rufus' son, Rev. Alexander C. Huntley. One part ended up in Colorado and the other in California. Some of the Huntley genealogists concluded that Jacob Huntley of Bakersfield, Vt. (my No. 141) was the Jacob Huntley No. 46 but that man would have been at least 30 years older than Abigail Buker who married Jacob Huntley No. 141. The Census of 1810 for Franklin Co., Vt., shows that the Jacob Huntley of Bakersfield was born in the period 1765 to 1784 so presumably could be the Jacob Huntley, born 1

Jan., 1773 and recorded in the Pease Bible. Abigail Huntley is listed as head of household in the Census of 1830 of Bakersfield, Vt. so did not die in 1829 as previously reported.

Most of Jacob Huntley's property consisted of Lot No. 21 in Bakersfield, Vt. formerly called Knowlton's Gore. There are many deeds recorded for Jacob Huntley and family in Bakersfield, Vt. Calvin Huntley died intestate; letters of administration were filed in Otsego Co., N. Y. Surrogate Court 11 April, 1834. [Letters of Administration B:262] Widow Martha Huntley's marriage to Joseph Mallard seemingly is an impossible union; she was at least twenty-three years older than he if her gravestone record is correct.

Census records do not help. In 1850 Martha Mallard was only ten years older than her husband but in 1860 she is listed as twenty years older than Joseph. Joseph Mallard's gravestone shows that he was born in 1821 but the Census records of 1850, 1860 and 1870 indicate that he was born in 1810 or 1811. Joseph Mallard married (2) by 1870 Nora L. Adam S. Huntley was a Lt. in the 176th N. Y. Militia. It is possible that Adam S. Huntley's wife, Harriet, was a Briggs or a Brigg's in-law because Noah Briggs and Lydia, his wife, of Utica, N. Page 51 #49. Jacob Huntley married (2) Miss Sukey Emerson of Machias, Maine 5 November, 1820. #112. Richard Huntley would therefore be a son of Jacob Huntley by his first wife, Charity Cates.

#113. Stephen Huntley married Miss Julia Ann Robinson of Machiasport, Maine 26 Sept., 1847.

vii. Melissa Huntley of Machiasport, Maine married William Emerson 11 July, 1855.

Page 270 #222. Calvin Huntley married (1) Chloe Coon, daug. of Henry & Lucretia (Hempstead) Coon and (2) Mrs. Roxanna (Beebe) Crocker, dau. of Asa & Lydia (Huntley) Beebe, Jr. The given name of Roxanna's first husband, Mr. Crocker, is unknown.

Henry Coon's Will names his grandchildren, the children of his deceased daughter, Chloe, wife of Calvin Huntley as Sarah, wife of Jacob Hogle, Mary Carr, wife of Jacob Carr and Julia, wife of John Kelly of Stephentown, N. Y.

INDEX OF PERSONS

The first part of this index lists all those born Huntly or Huntley.

The second part contains all other surnames, many of which are the family names of the husbands and children of Huntley women.

I am deeply grateful to Mrs. Margaret Parsons of Old Lyme, Connecticut who volunteered to compile part two of the index.

Her expertise in this field will be a great help to all those seeking their own particular family in this book.

In most cases the full name of each Huntley is given or middle initials, if known.

A list of early subscribers for copies of this book is contained on pages 285 and 286 and those two pages have not been indexed.
